Vineyard Description:

This vineyard is located on Dry Creek Road directly across the street from the winery. It is farmed by Randy Peters, who was born on the property and is named after his late mother, Pauline. The soil is made up of the famous Cortina soil. The Block is planted with the old mother clone that Randy's great grandfather planted in the 1800's.

Winemaker Notes:

We have two rows of Petite Sirah planted in our vineyard that we pick with the Zinfandel and create a co-fermentation. The co-fermentation makes up 2% of the blend adding spice and depth. This viscous Zinfandel is all parts great, with a banner year, a world class appellation, and a vineyard made with the famous Cortina soil.

Deep ruby in color the 2016 Rockpile Zinfandel has aromas of Boysenberry and Cocoa interspersed with subtle hints of white pepper. This medium bodied wine has a silky mouthfeel with gentle tannins and flavors of blackberry and dark cherry with notes of anise and pepper.
